Kubichek was born in 1933, in the historical town of Godo1l6, about twenty miles northeast of Budapest. Hungary. He grew up during the Depression, World War II and the Russian occupation. As a boy he learned about America and dreamed of escaping his drab life in Hungary. The denunciation of America and the West by the communist regime did not dampen his ambition. Kubichek was recruited as a spy by a former high school friend, and after being conscripted into the Hungarian Army he provided valuable information about confidential military data. Although under suspicion he was never caught. After military service, Kubichek entered the TechnologyUniversity in Budapest, and was involved in the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. On October 25, he rode into Parliament Square in a tank loaned by the Russians, and witnessed the massacre of several hundred men, women and children by the AVO, the feared Hungarian secret police. After the Russians crushed the Revolution, Kubichek fled to Canada with his brother, Matt. He received a degree in Architecture Drafting and Design, and then entered the University of British Columbia to study commercial art and archeology. He moved to United States in 1963 and became an American citizen in 1970. In 1972, Kubichek graduated from TechnicalCollege in Engineering Design, and the following year he served in Vietnam as an employee of the U.S Department of Defense. After return from Vietnam, he entered the NorthropUniversity in Inglewood, California. He graduated in 1977, and then worked for a CIA affiliated company as a technical advisor in Oregon. In 1979 he self published a book Gold and Where You Find It. His brother Matt owned a...
