Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Adjutant General of the State of New Jersey for the Year 1856 To his Excellency Rodman M. Price, Governor, Commander-in-Chief, c., c.: Sirs: - In conformity with the Order No. 5, of the thirtieth day of May, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, a copy of which will be found in Appendix, (A.) I landed in England on the eighteenth of June, and as far as the limited time would admit, gave my attention to the several objects of information upon which I was required to report. I saw no very large body of troops in England. I was present in London when the guards came up on their arrival from the Crimea, and regret to say that I was disappointed in their appearance. They did not strike me as particularly well set up, and although they looked as if they had seen service, still they had not a veteran look. With the exception of the Horse Guards, who had not been abroad, and are the perfection of every thing in that arm, the troops in England, justly accredited for their invincible stationary bravery, did not individually or collectively appear to me as if war was always uppermost in their thoughts. The gentlemanlike bearing of the officers was remarkable, and in a service where the army is sometimes resorted to as a living, and promotion can be acquired by the payment of money, the sergeants and other non-commissioned officers, as a class, are of incalculable value. The subject of the most approved arms used abroad, coming first in order, and also from its paramount importance to the State and to the United States,...
