Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Our National Army: A Question for the People The following pamphlet, reprinted from The National Review, is issued with the object of bringing a question of vital importance to the notice of busy men, of working men, of Englishmen less slothful or cowardly than so many of our politicians seem to believe. In this preface, in which I attempt to sum up my main points in a few words, the references in brackets are to those pages of the pamphlet in which the matter is dealt with more fully. The most formal Ministerial pronouncement as to the general military policy of Great Britain is probably that made by Lord Salisbury and Mr. Wyndham at the great Primrose League gathering of May 9th. Yet the main point of the Premier's long speech rested upon the assumption that our old English archers and the modern Swiss riflemen had been trained on a volunteer system, an assumption which is directly contrary to the facts (pp. 1, 10). Again, the final sentences of Mr. Wyndham's speech can only be construed as an appeal to the rich middle classes to persuade other men to fight for them, lest they should be compelled to fight themselves (p. 1). So false, and so utterly unworthy of a manly people, is the best advice which these Ministers can give to the nation at a moment of exceptional gravity! Now, this is no matter of mere politics. Badly prepared as we were for this war, we were probably better prepared than under any previous Government of this generation. Neither political Party can throw the blame upon the other: the question stretches far...
