O. , 2004. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54618074 Excerpt: . . . 11 I believe accountability and accessibility are among the greatest responsibilities every public official owes to the letter and spirit of the Constitution of the United States. The American people have the right to expect us to observe these principles as matters of basic good government, and to use them in our partnership with the private sector. I believe that new markets, free and fair trade, research enabling the creation of advanced American products and services, e-commerce, a policy of digital inclusion to bridge the digital divide, and the best scientific data are neither partisan domains nor the province of one-size-fits-all prescriptives from Washington, DC or anywhere else. The advocacy of these principles, practices and services to the American people will be foremost among my efforts as Commerce Secretary. Six months of opportunity and responsibility will demand a greater focus to make a greater difference. In that time, I plan to focus my energies and the energies of the Commerce Department in four areas: First, Keeping People in Business. This means keeping the economy growing, Americans more prosperous, and developing new international markets for American business. We must always remember that people are our business. We must continue to invest in our workers, their opportunities, and their communities. Second, Investing in our Nations Future. For the past 30 years, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration has been the Nations leader in pre-dicting and protecting the environment. Americans today enjoy the best weather service in the world. Our ports are more efficient and environmentally safe....
