Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Cases on Common Law Pleading, Vol. 3: Selected From Decisions of English and American Courts The first of the American Casebook Series, Mikell s Cases on Criminal Law, issued in December, 1908, contained in its preface an able argument by Mr. James Brown Scott, the General Editor of the Series, in favor of the case method of law teaching. This preface has appeared in each of the volumes published in the series up to the present time. But the teachers of law have moved onward, and the argument that was necessary in 1908 has now become needless. That such is the case becomes strikingly manifest to one examining three important documents that fittingly mark the progress of legal education in America. In 1893 the United States Bureau of Education published a report on Legal Education prepared by the American Bar Association s Committee on Legal Education, and manifestly the work of that Committee s accomplished chairman, William G. Hammond, in which the three methods of teaching law then in vogue - that is, by lectures,...
