Tickets leave the holder free and independent; separate coupons are issued for each stage of the tour, so that the bearer can alter route as booked, the unused coupons being exchanged for others at full value, or refunded less 10 per cent, at our Branch Offices. 2. As the rail, coach, and steamer connections in New Zealand are irregular, and run only certain days in the week, travellers can learn from Thos. Cook and Son the exact time taken over a desired trip, and expense of same (with or without hotels); itineraries also are supplied, giving times of departure and arrival of trains, coaches, etc., and proper allotment of time for each Place of Interest. 3. Being the authorised agents for all routes, T. C. S. have no special interests to serve, but are in a position to give accurate and unbiased information and guidance; the value of this cannot be over-estimated. 4. Tickets are good for three months, and allow break of journey en route. 5. In no case are fares higher, but in many cases lower, than those charged by the companies and contractors themselves. 6. Ticket-holders have the assistance everywhere of our representatives, and can obtain full and reliable information at all our Offices; printed matter supplied gratis. 7. Reliable information given regarding best hotels, but free scope allowed to ticket-holders as to use of same. Rooms are wired for during busy season, and clients receive the best of attention. 8. Box seats secured on coaches, and, if required, special conveyances arranged for parties in lieu of ordinary coaches; special rates quoted on application. 9. Arrangements made...
