

Billy Slater: From North Queensland to Melbourne Storm s Number One (Paperback)

By John Ellicott

HARDIE GRANT BOOKS, Australia, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 233 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hailing from Innesfail in rugged far north Queensland, Billy Slater s rugby league days began in the tough local Foley Shield competition, where his father and uncles had played before him. The struggle Billy endured to pursue the game, from his modest roots and remote locale, is symptomatic of the strength of character and physicality that saw him go on to play for the Melbourne Storm and eventually be voted the best footballer in the world. Now John Ellicott presents a finely crafted portrait of the star fullback: from his Spanish background and his family s beginnings up north, to the great rivalries of the Queensland towns who battled it out for the Foley Shield, through the eyes of former coaches and players who knew him. He has had a successful career: at Melbourne he set the club record for most ever tries and NRL record for most ever tries by a fullback. Slater also won three grand finals, the Clive Churchill Medal and the Dally M Medal with the Storm. With the Kangaroos he was the 2008 World Cup s...
