Excerpt: .and therefore unable, as known by Schleisner, to give this business his personal attention and supervision. The copartnership agreement contains the following provision: (Section 8). Nor shall said partners by himsvlf or with any other person whomsoever, during the continuance: of said partnership, directly or indirectly engage in any other mercantile pursuit; but his time and attention shall be clevoted to the partnership which is by these articles formed. In other words, the complainant, without any explanation, files his bill in which he admits that he has failed to perform his part of the contract in one of its most important particulars, and at the same time prays the Court to decree specific performance of the contract as against the defendant. It will be observed that the principal charge made against the defendant is his alleged failure and incapacity to give the business his...
