Excerpt: . . . 11 try, and I would also add, even though it fits within the math part of the STEM program, I want to emphasize the importance of getting caught up in computer science again. We are not doing well in that particular area in this Nation. We must increase the interest in computer science in the elementary and secondary schools and certainly must increase the number of computer scientists that we are developing, particularly as we as a Nation worry more about cybersecurity. The current budget, despite providing for the doubling of the overall NSF budget, does not emphasize the importance of STEM education to our countrys economic competitiveness. That is a very, very important point. I look forward to hearing from our excellent witnesses today about the new additions proposed in the fiscal year 2011 budget and how we can work together to strength the COMPETES Act. Thank you very much. I yield back. The prepared statement of Mr. Ehlert follows: P S R V J. E REPAIRED TATEMENT OF EPRESENTATIVE ERNON HLERS In the fiscal year 2011 budget request, the Administration has requested substantial increases in funding for the National Science Foundation (NSF). I am pleased the funding request continues the Foundation on a path to doubling its budget, although that path has had a rather bumpy start over the last several years. The budget request proposes some targeted investments at the NSF in the areas of innovation, cyberlearning, and graduate education. It also proposes some restructuring of the programs targeted...
