Kazan on Directing

By Elia Kazan

Random House USA Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Kazan on Directing, Elia Kazan, Elia Kazan was the mid-twentieth century's most celebrated director of both stage and screen, and this book shows us the master at work. Kazan directed virtually back to back the greatest American dramas of the era--by Arthur Miller and Tennessee Williams--and revolutionized theatre and film with dynamic action, poetic staging, and rigorous naturalism. His list of Broadway and Hollywood successes--"A Streetcar Named Desire" (stage and screen), "All My Sons, Death of a Salesman, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, On the Waterfront, East of Eden, Baby Doll, America America, "to name only a few--is a testament to his profound impact on the art of directing. Kazan's insights into these and other classic stage works shaped their subsequent productions--and continue to do so. There is no directorial achievement in America equal to his. This remarkable book, drawn from his notebooks, letters, interviews, and autobiography, reveals Kazan's method: how he uncovered for himself the "spine" or core of each script and each character; how he analyzed each piece in terms of his own experience; how he determined the specifics of his production, from casting and costuming to...
