Excerpt: . ecclesiastical: monumental and manusceiptal. sermon preached in the Parish Church of Spilsby on June 16th, 1878, by the Rev. Canon Eawnsley, will not be wholly unremembered. It is the last time. When you leave this Church, and go back to your own homes, you will have worshipped for the last time, and heard Cod s Word preached to you for the last time, and His Peace delivered to you for the last time within these venerable walls. When next you come together into Spilsby Church, all will have become new; the shaken, shattered walls will have been taken down; the galleries, which now disfigure the building, will have disappeared; the worn-out timbers, and heavy overhanging beams will have been removed; and a new edifice will have been raised up, long, I trust, to remain! Eor 200 years and more before the great Reformation,...
