Excerpt: .different from any known experience in all the world s history, that you cannot feel yourself. It seems as if it was just your spirit. The grotesque fanciful shapes of cloudprojections, as you wind in and out among them, are so incomparably white, the air is so cold and so devoid of dust and moist particles, that it seems as if there were no air at all. With the illusion of absolute awful stillness, little wonder that I can feel that I might come upon her on the other side of the next cloud. Love to all. CAMP BOBDEN, October 24, 1917. Momma DEAR, --I feel no bitterness against the Huns as individuals or as a race. It is war that I hate, and war that I am willing to give all to end as permanently as possible; for it is n t the...
